Finding Las Palmas

Approaching town, go past the first intersection, which has a sign pointing to Laguna Del Mar. The 2nd intersection is past the Coca Cola plant on left and little airport on right. It typically has a blinking light and the sign says "CHOLLA BAY" and "SANDY BEACH RESORTS." Turn right.

Follow this road (you will go across a railroad track in appx 1 mile) you will arrive at a circle which you then follow towards the condo-towers on the horizon. Keep going straight until you see the white and blue COSTA DIAMANTE arch. Go thru the arch and up the slope. You will go past a number of resorts and Las Palmas will appear on your left.
